Class of 2008 Yearbook Dedication to Professor Lawson Bowling

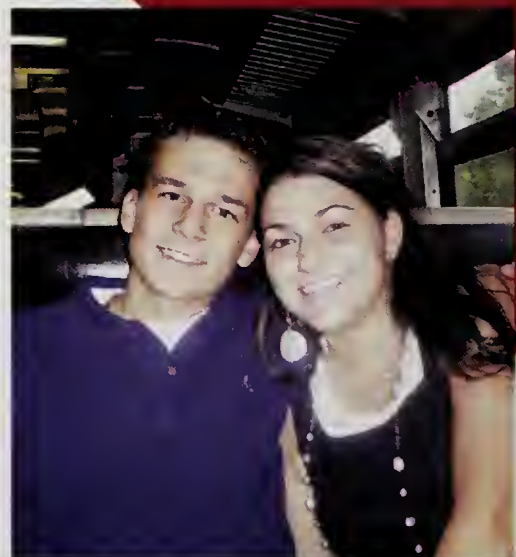

We, the graduating class of 2008, dedicate our Tower yearbook to Professor Lawson Bowling. Professor Bowling has been teaching at Manhattanville for more than 24 years has been the chair of the history department on various occasions, and currently serves in the school's committee for Academic Standards. Noted for being a sports enthusiast, as he attends every major sports event at Manhattanville, and for organizing, through the History club, events that are considered to be part of the Manhattanville tradition, like the Alumni BBQ and the Super Bowl party. Through his charisma and guidance, he has managed to win the hearts and minds of the Manhattanville community. Prof. Lawson Bowling, a pride of Manhattanville.

FLIK

Our
Darling
Kimi

Beautiful inside and out-with eyes that say what no words can.
Four years since you entered the mini-world just 20 minutes from home.
Who would have thought you would become the center of the Mideast conflict?
You made cement in El Salvador, and cried for the starving children.
Three times you've known the joy of Shabbat in Israel.
And somewhere within those thousands of miles, you discovered who you are.
And your journey has just begun.
A diplomat, a businesswoman, a leader.
Always running and doing, but never too busy to send Gma a letter.
A compassionate and caring sister. A wonderful loving daughter.
Kindness defines you; your wisdom and insight are golden. We are so proud of you.
No matter where life takes you-you will always be my baby.
With pride and love, Mom, Jamie, & Gma

Congratulations and Best Wishes

Dear Jessica,

Wow did the past four years fly! It feels like not so long ago we were dropping you off as a freshman with all your stuff and lugging it all up that scary little elevator.

That was very different emotionally for us. We were excited for you but heartbroken and worried at the same time. Although you were so looking forward to freedom and life on your own, it was so hard leaving you with no friends in a unfamiliar place- comes naturally as parents.

We are so proud of you for working so hard at attending college while working to support yourself at the same time. We know that was not an easy thing, but with your dedication and personality you made it all fun. We are sorry for not being able to do more for you.

You are truly a wonderful young lady and we are so blessed to have you as our daughter!

Please remember that home, family, and love are here for you always- any time day or night.

All our love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Lauren,

Congratulations!! It's hard to believe you have graduated from college. During your four years at Manhattanville, you have become a lovely, educated young lady, someone who stands up for herself and for those she loves. We have always believed in you and knew that your hard work, persistence, and dedication would pay off. Soon you will be taking on new challenges or whatever comes your way. We cannot promise you that only good things will happen in your life. Love and grief, joy and strife, are all part of experience and life. Success is what happens when you don't give up.

We are so very proud of you Lauren and wish we could make your dreams instant realities. But that would take away your satisfaction of your accomplishments. When a new beginning unfolds in the story of your life, your dreams will just be around the corner, waiting to come true. Always remember that no matter what or when, we are always here for you. Thanks for being the wonderful person you are. We love you!

My Butterfly

As butterflies spread their wings, a whimsical and colorful journey begins
Shadowing their beauty of life so effortlessly as they flutter like the winds
Their delicate demeanor is felt like no other of nature's splendid treasures
So fragile and yet beautifully strong, enduring life that no other measures

My butterfly spread your wings as yet another amazing life journey unfolds
Your beauty, wisdom and fortitude, so delicate to sight but unseen in strength you hold

My butterfly may your arms be your wings as you flutter over life's confining boundaries and soar above

Life is your season to explore endlessly and accomplish what you truly love.

Dear Remy,

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Teddy and Oreo

“Congratulations Class 2008”

Michael Francis Panella

Dear Michael~

Born with a heart of gold, gentle spirit, loyal and giving friend.

I am so proud of the man you have become.

Never stop learning, never stop dreaming.

Congratulations on your graduation!

Love, Mom

“It's better to burn out than to fade away”,

Neil Young

Dear Casey:

As we mature, we learn to appreciate life more and the special gifts that we receive from God. You are certainly a special gift that we love unconditionally. The memory of the day you were born is as fresh as if it happened yesterday. You have brought so much joy into our lives. We were so proud of you then and everyday have grown to be even more proud of your efforts and accomplishments. Your many accomplishments: academics, athletics, dance, musical talents, singing, along with your personal traits of honesty, kindness, compassion, and integrity make you so special to us. You have been blessed with so many talents and gifts; always remember to follow your dreams.

Your hard work will have finally paid off in obtaining your bachelor's degree from Manhattanville College. This is a degree you should cherish for the rest of your life. You have earned it and certainly deserve it.

As you move into the next phase of your life, we will be there to help you navigate the sometimes difficult but rewarding path through the working world. Congratulations on obtaining your first job! We know that you will work hard to prove your worth and will have a very successful career.

Good Luck! Work Hard! Have Fun! Enjoy Life! May your future be filled with good health, happiness, love, and success. As you start your new journey in life, may God continue to bless you. Always remember we are here for you and how much we love you! Congratulations!!!

Love,

Dad and Mom

To our wonderful, magical son,

Vinny III

We want to take this opportunity to tell you how very special you are to us (as you already know). We are so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished so far, and I'm sure that there will be many more accomplishments in your talented life to come. We will always be proud of you; the kind, sincere, caring, loving person that you are, and most of all, humble.

We wish you Good Luck for the future, and we pray you will succeed in whatever you do, because you certainly deserve it. Keep up the good work and don't forget what's important to you, and always remain the caring person that you are. May God bless you always and keep you in his care.

We Love you Always & Forever
(your favorite two people in the world)

Mom & Dad

Dear Diana,

Congratulations on your graduation from Manhattanville! Our hearts are filled with overwhelming joy and pride at this special time. Your many accomplishments, service and honors are numerous; your extreme hard work, commitment and dedication have contributed to your success. Diane, you are the meaning of a "Beautiful Young Woman." We feel grateful and blessed for this. You are going to be the most fantastic, caring Math teacher ever!(Your students will be blessed!) Your sincere, genuine character, patience and passion for teaching are wonderful qualities which also make us very proud.

Wishing your life many joys and new adventures, may you always have God's continued Blessings, Faith in your heart, good Health, Love and Happiness. We love you so very much. Congratulations Sweetheart!

With our Love Always,
Mommy, Daddy, John and "Ponie"

(P.S. Congratulations & Good Luck to the entire Class of 2008! We appreciate and thank the entire Administration, Staff and Professors for making the last four years so wonderful, accomodating and memorable!)

Maria,

As you complete another milestone in life, believe that the best has yet to come. May God guide your steps into the future and may He help you to see the opportunities that lie ahead. You are a kind and beautiful person inside and out. Always remember that we love you with all our hearts.

We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments so far in life. Stay the course and your dreams will be fulfilled.

Love you,

Mom & Dad

Dear Jess,

As your college years have gone by, we've taken pride in watching you grow and mature. You have excelled and made us proud of your accomplishments. We know you will continue to reach for the stars and achieve your goals. We will always be wishing the best for you, rooting for your spirit, believing in you. We are grateful for the privilege of being your parents, helping when we could, and simply being part of your life. Congratulations!

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Ariane (Ski),

Congrats on a job well done,
You shine brighter than the sun!
As a child you were a menace,
Then you picked up a racket, became captain of tennis!
You're such a Smarty-Pants,
In your vocab was never can't!

Love,
Britt, Mom, Dad, Papa, and Grama

Christina Marie Gallante

Congratulations on your College Graduation!

Time has turned you into a strong, beautiful young woman. Keep your goals in sight and enjoy life for all it has to offer.

From Kindergarten to Law School...
You've come a long way and we are so proud of you!

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Andrew, and your entire family

Congratulations Class of 2008!

“Oh, the Places you’ll go!”

Best wishes in the future!
We will miss you!

The Office of Student Activities

Alyssa.

Where has the time gone?

It's hard to believe you are graduating from college.

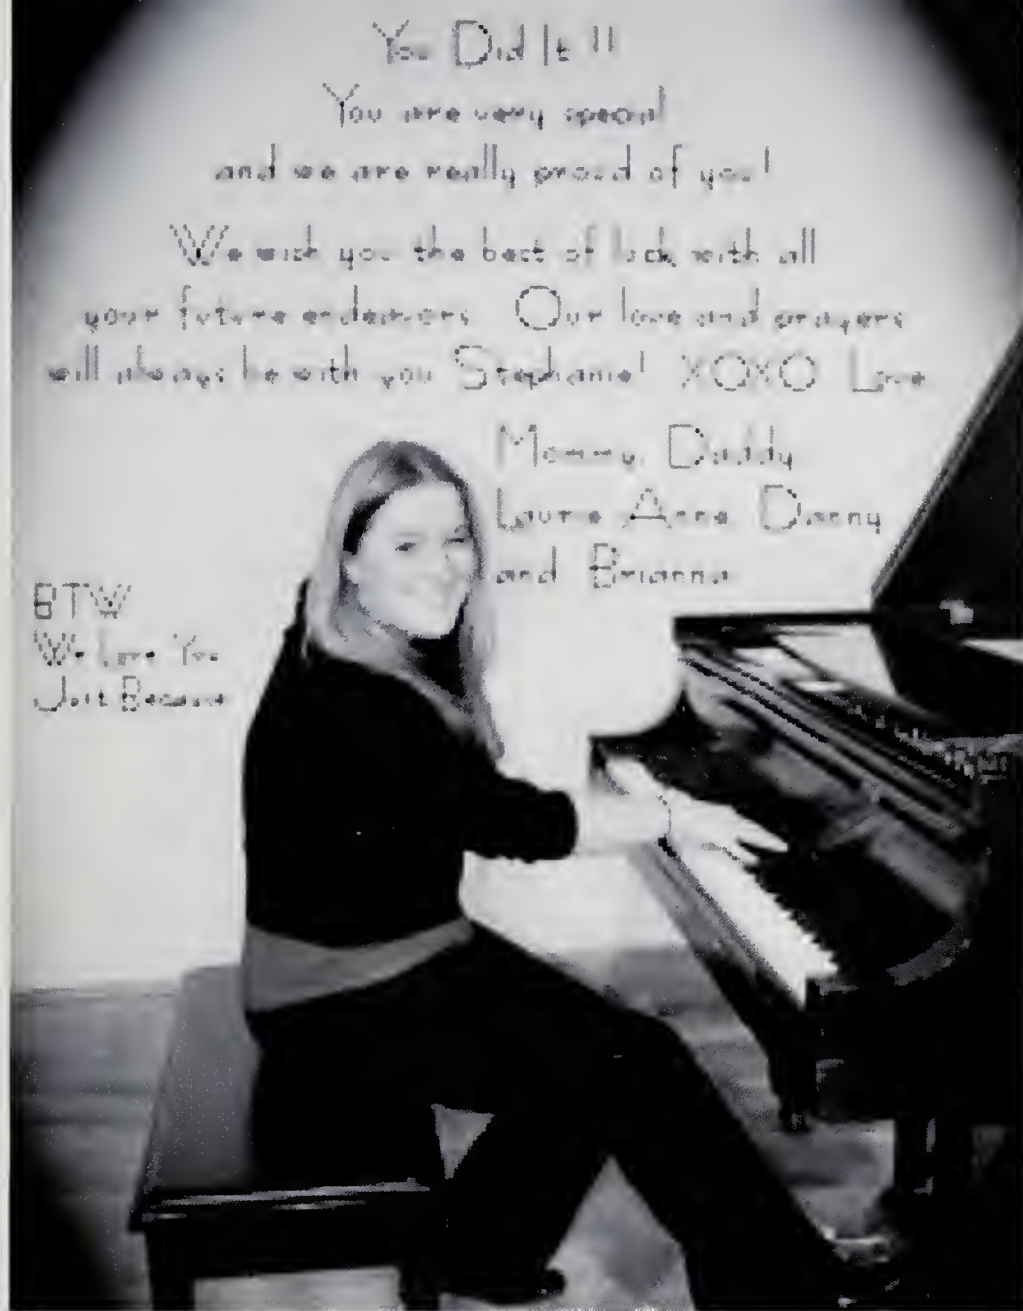

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments and know you have no limitations.

Stay focused and continue to reach for the stars and your dreams will come true.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Adam, Kelly, and Krista

Congratulations

Much Love

Mom, Dad and Stephen
